MASON FARMERS STRONGLY IN FAVOR OF 1921 CUT-OUT

County Committee Organized at Meeting Last Night Selecting Hon. Stanley F. Reed As Their Chairman.

The meeting of growers in their various home precincts throughout county yesterday were very enthusiastic, the precinct chairmen who were chosen at those meetings reported at their county meeting held last night at the Farm Bureau building. The precincts chose the following growers as their representatives on the county board:

Hilltop, Stanley F. Reed; Dieterich, H. H. Rosser; Washington, W. H. Mackoy; Plumville, C. S. Sherman; Plughtown, W. R. Lloyd; Orangeburg, Lloyd Halfhill; Germantown, Dan H. Lloyd; Sardis A. John Marshall; Sardis B. A. F. Sult; East Mayslick, Gus A. Brooks; West Mayslick, S. M. Roff; Minerva, E. F. Boyd, Jr.; Dover, I. N. Manley; Fern Leaf, James Graybill; Murphysville, George Rhodes; Helena, M. J. Plarity; Lewisburg, Thomas Malone.

These precinct chairmen unanimously selected Hon. S. F. Reed as their County Chairman and a number of Lewis county farmers in attendance gave him a letter authorizing him to act for Lewis county. The Lewis county farmers hold their meeting this afternoon at 1 o'clock and will wire Mr. Reed any new developments in that county.

These committeemen with representatives of all of the local warehouses and banks left this morning for Lexington to attend the state meeting.

The seventeen precinct chairmen in attendance at Thursday night's meeting reported an attendance at all of the precinct meetings of 2130 growers. All but four of these growers voted in favor of a 1921 cut-out of tobacco and every grower favored holding the 1920 crop until a better price is assured.

ROBERT T. POLLITT'S BODY TO BE BURIED HERE

Body of World War Hero Who Died in France Will Arrive Here for Burial Tomorrow.

Mrs. Thomas M. Russell has just received a telegram from the Federal authorities advising her that the body of her nephew, Private Robert T. Pollitt, who died of disease in France while in service during the World War, had arrived in New York with the last shipment of soldier bodies and would be shipped immediately to Maysville for burial.

The body left New York yesterday and should arrive in Maysville tomorrow morning. It will be removed to the home of Mayor and Mrs. Russell in Third street from which place the funeral will be held Sunday, the hour to be announced later.

The funeral will be in charge of the Leslie H. Arthur Post American Legion and the burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.

Young Mr. Pollitt is well known here where he spent much of his earlier life. He had spent a full enlistment in the United States Navy before the opening of the war and volunteered his services to the army at the opening of the conflict. He saw much active duty before being stricken down.

ELECTION OF FARM BUREAU OFFICIALS TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Annual Meeting of Farm Bureau for Mason County To Be Held At the Local Headquarters of Organization.

The annual election of officers of the Farm Bureau will be held on Tuesday afternoon, January 11, at 1:30 o'clock at the Farm Bureau. The outgoing officers will leave a record of achievement behind which is most praiseworthy. It is indeed to be deplored that the great majority of the farmers of Mason county have absolutely no idea of the work which has been done by the Farm Bureau during the past year, but we are forced to consider that when a man is in a measure prosperous he is inclined to doubt that co-operation with his neighbors in the county, state and nation will benefit him personally. Let us see what has been done the past year and decide if co-operation helps.

The American Farm Bureau Federation has been assisted in its work by the Mason County Farm Bureau, since $374 was paid into the state treasury, of which sum about $100 was for dues in the national organization.

The American Farm Bureau Federation now has over 1,500,000 members, and the number is growing by the hundreds every day. If an organization of that size speaks to congress, Congress hears.

Last year they heard, and the Nolan bill was beaten by the American farmer. This bill would have taxed the farmer one per cent. of his farm land value over $10,000, which would have cost the farmers of the United States over one billion dollars yearly.

When the railroads asked for an increase in freight rates last fall the American Farm Bureau Federation hired Clifford Thorne, the greatest freight rate expert in the United States, and he appeared before the Rate Board and secured a re-adjustment of rates which is saving the American farmer over $350,000 every day.

In either of the two cases referred to the average farmer was saved several times the annual dues to the county Farm Bureau.

In Mason county every farmer who wishes can get the Cincinnati livestock markets through the telegraphic market service furnished by the Farm Bureau. This enables the farmer to know the condition of the market the same as if he were in the stockyards.

The local Farm Bureau handled over $35,000 worth of business for the local farmers, without profit, and with but $2,100 in dues as capital. If a business house operated on but ten per cent. margin, the above amount of business would have cost the farmers almost twice the amount of all the dues paid in.

It certainly seems clear that any reasonable man should admit that an organization which can show such a record merits the support of every farmer.

FORMER BROWN COUNTY MAN WAS MURDERED IN FLORIDA

Captain Bert Chambers Is Murdered With an Ax By Negro As He Slept In Store.

Ripley, Ohio. — Word has been received here of the killing of Captain Bert Chambers, of Lutz, Florida, on the night of December 27th. He kept a general store there and slept in an adjoining room. When found he had been struck four blows on the head with the sharp edge of an ax. A negro, who was later captured, confessed the crime. He only obtained ten dollars in cash in the store, which he had entered to rob. This place was Captain Chambers' home for a number of years, and his friends were sorry to learn of his tragic death. He was seventy-two years old and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Sadie Maddox Drake, of Lutz, Florida, and Mrs. Anna McCormick, of Gallipolis.

Captain Chambers formerly lived near Ripley and had many friends in this section of the country.

FLOYD COUNTIANS MAKE A BID FOR MOUNTAIN SCHOOL

People of Small Floyd County Community Offer Site, Building and $17,000 For D. of A. R. School.

Land, buildings and subscriptions to the value of $17,000 has been offered to the Kentucky Daughters of the American Revolution for their proposed mountain school by men, women and children of Hueyville, Floyd county.

The offer includes six acres of land on which is a school house erected at a cost of several hundred dollars, and subscriptions ranging from twenty-five cents to $100 made by eager children as well as their parents and friends.

The offer has been made to Mrs. Christopher D. Chenault, of Lexington, who is chairman of the State D. A. R. committee investigating prospects for the school in order to make a report at the Kentucky Conference to be held in October, 1921. Mrs. Chenault also received today a communication from a prominent citizen in Elliott county, who offers a site, a school building and generous support for the institution, making an eloquent plea for the children of that county.

The proposition from Hueyville is one of several made by Floyd county, which has been making continued efforts to obtain the school, sending several representatives to meetings of the state committee, which has also been showered with telegrams from leading citizens and officials, who offered money, land and unlimited support.

EDDINS GIVEN A LIFE SENTENCE BY JURY TODAY

Henry L. Eddins Is Found Guilty of the Murder of Ben Schumaker and Given a Life Sentence in Penitentiary.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the jury in the famous Eddins murder case returned a verdict into court finding the defendant guilty of willful murder of Ben Schumaker, night watchman at the Maysville Cotton Mills and fixing his punishment at confinement for life in the state penitentiary.

It is understood that the jury first stood equally divided between death in the electric chair and life imprisonment and after one hour and three-quarters of deliberation, they reached the verdict returned. The jury was given the case at 2:15 o'clock.

Upon the return of the verdict into court, Eddins, who was sitting just inside the rail with Deputy Sheriff Devore, broke into tears and cried fitfully. As he was taken to the jail he cried hard.

The Mason county court house was filled to overflowing all day today with men, women and children, anxious to hear the last arguments of the attorneys in the case.

The day was opened by the defense offering a disposition of the engineer at the Maysville Cotton Mills and with this disposition the case closed. Attorney A. D. Cole opened the argument for the defendant. He presented the case as a love triangle with the widow of the murdered man being blamed for the condition. He pictured the woman as being mistreated by her husband and being hungry for love which she found in Eddins, who was dutifully caring for his two motherless children. The woman was made to appear the aggressor in this unlawful courtship. He also plead self-defense.

Attorney F. P. O'Donnell also spoke to the defense and following dinner, District Prosecutor Grannis made one address for the prosecution. He painted Eddins as a willful murderer and urged the jury to inflict the death penalty.

Interest in the case is much keener than it was at its first trial.

"LISTEN LESTER" MUSICAL COMEDY PLAYS TO FULL HOUSE.

The well advertised musical comedy "Listen Lester" played to a large audience at the Washington Opera House last night. It was the equal of any musical comedy seen here thus far this season. Gus Shy, the comedian, brought many a laugh to the patrons and they seemed to be well pleased with his stunts and lines. An orchestra would have added much to the entertainment. The dancing and costuming were attractive feature of the performance.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

INTERMINABLE DISCUSSIONS.

Secretary of the Treasury Houston says that a representative of the British government will reach this country soon to continue the discussions regarding the exchange into long-term bonds of the certificates of indebtedness of Great Britain now held in our Treasury, amounting to about $4,200,000,000. Those discussions began about eighteen months ago. The certificates contain a very definite promise to make the exchange when requested by the Secretary of the Treasury. Why interminable discussions are necessary is a mystery not yet disclosed by the Treasury. When it is realized that the exchange is the first step toward receiving interest on the foreign debt and making arrangements for its final payment, it is seen how important it is that they be concluded as speedily as possible.

HAVEY'S PLAN.

Col. George Harvey is sponsor for a peace plan that would "deny a Government the right to begin an aggressive war, save with and after the permissive vote of its people." He declares that had his plan been in effect heretofore "there would probably have been not one war in a hundred years." But has he stopped to reflect what would have been the probable outcome of the World War had it not been for the aggressive participation therein of Russia? Russia mobilized and threatened Austria and Germany solely because she was an ally of Serbia. She was not menaced in any way herself, and she prepared for a distinctly aggressive war. Had it not been for the detachment of a substantial part of the German army to protect her eastern frontier from Russia the outcome of the World War probably would have been far different.

MONEY CONDITIONS IMPROVED, SAYS THE FEDERAL RESERVE

Federal Reserve Bank Review Says Money Conditions of the Nation Have Improved.

The Monthly Business Review of the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank says:

Money conditions appear to be more encouraging. Loans at some of the principal centers are being steadily reduced, but some banks reports a very active demand from country correspondents. The demand for new loans is neither so keen nor so large as it has been in past months.

The volume of rediscounts for other Federal Reserve banks shows a shrinkage of about $30,000,000 in the past thirty days. Loans to and redis-counts for members banks show no material change.

In the early part of the month the demand for bank and bankers' acceptances was very active, and all the prime paper offered was absorbed very readily. When the demand showed no signs of easing up, and the dealers' portfolios became depleted, the offering rates of discount were lowered 1/4th of one per cent. As previously experienced a few months ago, orders immediately fell off, and the market became quiet, which resulted in the rates being raised again to their former basis.

Banking institutions, which are still the determining factors in the rates, seem very insistent on at least a six per cent. basis for prime 30 day bills, and in the present money market will divert their funds to other fields, unless this rate is given. The number of corporations and individuals purchasing acceptances is constantly growing, and has been the stabilizing factor in the market, as local demands on the banks have withdrawn their funds from the acceptance field.

After the rate was lowered and again raised the former activity in demand did not return, and up until the 15th of this month the market remained quiet, caused by the announcement of the Treasury of another issue of certificates of indebtedness. However, since the 15th, the tendency of the market has improved, and another good month is expected. During this month the banks will receive state tax funds.

The supply of bills has not improved over the previous month and the variety of prime bills is still quite limited, due to the general inactivity of business.

RUTH ROLAND SERIAL STARTS TOMORROW.

Ruth Roland in "Ruth of the Rock-

MAYSVILLE EVIDENCE FOR MAYSVILLE PEOPLE

The Statement of Maysville Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof.
 Public statements of Maysville people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Maysville man's statement.
 And it's for Maysville people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

Ask your neighbor:

Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says:

"My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well."

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Over four years later, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been perma-

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — Do you carry a little guinea pig in your pocket? Probably not; but if you have any friends among the unregenerate who have not yet got around to applying the 18th amendment personally, a smooth coated little guinea pig would make a splendid New Year gift. It has been quite a popular companion here in New York. For it is the whisky tester infallible. If the cavy, as it is known in professional circles, drinks a few drops of the liquor and still lives, the human being standing breathlessly by, may safely go ahead with it. But if so much as one drop of wood alcohol is present, the cavy dies without delay. Incidentally, the price of the little animal has risen from $3 to $15, since its valuable quality became more valuable. It must be a smooth coated guinea, though. The rough coated ones haven't sufficiently riotous spirit to drink liquor of any sort.

Mrs. Arthur Hammerstein has returned to the stage. When she was married a year and a half ago to the theatrical producer, it was announced that she had formally and permanently renounced the stage. But the lure of the footlights has brought her back into her husband's own production "Tickle Me." She has stepped, unannounced, into the prima donna part under her former stage name, Claire Nangle. She will be remembered for her work in "Ziegfeld's Follies," "Jack o' Lantern," and "Tumble In," the Hammerstein production which led to her marriage with the producer.

New York Society is considerably interested in the report from Budapest that Count Laszlo Szechenyi is preparing to sail soon for America to visit his wife and children, and that he plans to return to Hungary with them in March. The Countess who was Gladys Vanderbilt, has been here since September visiting her mother, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and her sister, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney.
 Ever since her arrival there have been persistent rumors that a divorce contemplated and that at any rate, the Countess and her children were here to stay. Her family have refused to discuss these reports but they also now refuse to discuss the report of the Count's plans to come after his wife and children.

One thousand dollars a plat for stew bread and cocoa; that is what guests paid and received at the European Relief Council dinner the other night.
 The dinner, arranged by Herbert Hoover, was open to anyone who contributed or collected $1000 for the relief fund, and it consisted of the exact fare of the diners being served to the hungry children of the Near East.

Magistrate Silberman of the Washington Heights Court is not entirely certain that some one didn't slip him one of those pills made famous by Sam Bernard in "As You Were," which carry you back through a century or two every time you swallow one. He was forced to hold a hearing the other day in which the issue at stake was whether or not Mrs. Bessie Avorin is a witch. And a dozen unofficial witnesses declared from their seats in the courtroom that she is.
 Mrs. Sophie Stern, of W. 145th street, declared that Mrs. Avorin has used a curse on her little girl and made a cripple of her. "She is a witch," she answered to all questioning. Hisses from the non-witch-believers, contested for supremacy with cries of "Witch Witch!" from the supporters of Mrs.
 Stern. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

Box office prices are said to be getting ready to drop, yes, actually drop.
 The Shuberts express the opinion that 50 cents will be cut from the present $3 level and Charles Dillingham echoes the same thought. "Not for the elaborate productions which have such a tremendous overhead that charges must be high to cover it," he said. "The average play, however, is going to be seen at lower cost, without a doubt."

Fortunately the eyes of youth grasp only one sort of realism in the world of motion pictures. The other day, at one of the especially popular showings, a child was watching interest-ly, when the setting changed to an elaborately furnished room, in the center of which stood a luxurious bed.

 The heroine was just emerging from the silken coverlets to flee, at the midnight hour, from the scene of her misery. As she slipped into conveniently placed boudoir slippers and reached for a fluffy negligee, the child's disapproving voice broke the tense silence. "Mother," she whispered hoarsely, "Mother, look at that. She went to bed with her shirt on under night-gown. Doesn't she know that isn't healthy?"

TWO PRINCIPLES AS A BASIS FOR PEACE

Suggestion Advocating a Combination of the Knox Principle and the Monroe Doctrine as Foundation.

Washington. — Advocating a combination of the Knox principle and the Monroe Doctrine as a basis for peace, the Republican Publicity Association declares:

"Since the death of Charlemagne in 814 Europe has been the cockpit of the human race. In the course of eleven centuries that continent has experienced not a decade of unalloyed peace. The unwise division of Charlemagne's empire in 843 by the Treaty of Verdun, on the basis of natural frontiers, instead of racial boundaries is held by historians to be chiefly responsible for the ages of combat and land-grabbing which have written the history of Europe in the blood of millions.

"In the careers of Greece and Rome," says Horne, "we saw exemplified the results of two sharply opposing tendencies of the Aryan mind, the one toward individualism and separation, the other toward self-subordination and union. In the time of Charlemagne's splendid successes it appeared settled that the second of these tendencies was to guide the Teutonic Aryans, that the Europe of the future was to be a single empire, ever pushing out its borders as Rome had done, ever subduing its weaker neighbors, until the 'Teutonic peace' should be substituted for the shattering 'Roman peace,' soldiers should be needed only for the duties of police, and a whole civilized world again obey the rule of a single man. Instead of this, the race has since followed a destiny of separation. Europe is divided into many countries, each of them a vast camp bristling with armies and arsenals.
 Civilization has continued hag-ridden by war ever to our own day."

"The scheme of the Big Five at Versailles was to substitute for the rule of a single man the rule of a corporate entity to be known as the league of nations into which the United States was to be fastened to serve as a reservoir for men, munitions, and money by the power of which a war trust was to decree the destinies of mankind. The experience of eleven hundred years during which the inherent individualism of the Aryan mind had incessantly asserted itself was utterly ignored. Racial antipa-thies were flouted and self determination was made a farce. The Caucasian and the Mongolian, the Christian and the Turk, the Anglo-Saxon and the Hottentot were to be fused in a crucible and hardened in a mold, to be fixated or fashioned as the league saw fit. Individualism was to be effaced, nationalism was to be canceled. Internationalism as interpreted by the league was to be the new order. Of course such an insane scheme could not succeed, nor can it ever succeed, because as mankind interprets success it must always be achieved as the expense of some other individual or states. Just as soon as the league got together its members began to jockey and quarrel for position, and only by evading issued did the league adjourn, bent but not broken.

"Argentina had the good sense to get out of the diplomatic mess into which she saw Europe being forced by the age-old spirit of intrigue. We had the good sense never to get in. Chile and other Latin American countries have not been favorably impressed by the determination of European diplomats to boss the league and the world.
 They found European diplomacy unregenerate.

"This leads to the query as to whether out of two enunciations of principle some basis may not be established by which the Western Hemis-sphere can do something to abate war. The first is the Monroe Doctrine.
 The second was suggested by Senator Knox, to-wit: 'If a situation should arise in which any power or combination of powers should, directly or indirectly menace the freedom and peace of Europe, the United States would regard such situation with grave concern as a menace to its own freedom and peace and would consult with other powers affected with a view to concerted action for the removal of such menace.' Europe is not qualified to police the world, but the nations of North and South America can take steps to insure peace in this hemisphere if they will get together on two such principles as these. It is worth considering."

OWENSBORO. — Four bandits posing as prohibition officers, in a motor truck, visited the farm of H. S. Herr, who is ill in a local hospital, and forced Tilden Jones, tenant, to open the cellar, from which they removed 11 cases of 8-year-old whisky.

 tiller, has filed suit against the Collector of Internal Revenue to recover penalties of $16,271 collected on property alleged to have been omitted from his income tax returns.

AUGUSTA CLOSING MARKET AFTER SIX ROWS ARE SOLD.

Augusta, Ky., Jan. 7.—The Augusta tobacco market opened with about 225,000 pounds of tobacco on the floor of the three houses. The first sale was to be held at the Burley house and by unanimous agreement it was decided to limit the entire floor to be sold, the growers to have the privilege of rejecting the sale within twenty-four hours.

After six rows of tobacco had been sold, just 7,000 pounds. H. T. Asbury asked those present if they were satisfied with the prices so far. A ye and nay vote was taken and it was decided to stop selling at this point, although there was considerable opposition to this.

The sales averaged $24.45, prices ranging from $2 to $48, and this tobacco was considered a fair average of the floor.

After the sales were stopped the growers assembled at Russell Hall, where a large number joined the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association and expressed themselves as favorable to cutting out the 1921 crop.

It is estimated that more than 1,000 growers attended the opening. Many were from Brown and Clermont counties, Ohio.

SHEEP FIVE CENTS EACH; THAT'S TEXAN'S PROFIT.

Washington, Jan. 7. — Five cents a sheep is what a Texas ranchman received for a shipment of sheep. Representative Hudspeth of Texas told the House.

"A constituent of mine shipped 102 sheep from Donaldsonville, La., to Ft. Worth," he declared, exhibiting copy of the bill of sale.

"After he had paid all expenses, including freight charges, commission, and the like, he received $5.43 net."

"One hundred and two sheep for $5.43—a nickel a sheep."

"This shows how the high cost of living pendulum has swung to the other extreme insofar as the farmer is concerned."

"Who gets the difference?" Hudspeth was asked. "Leg of lamb sells for 45 cents a pound in Washington and lamb chops bring 60 cents a pound."

The Texan could not answer, but as a sheep raiser himself, at this rate he would have to sell nine sheep on his Texas ranch before he can buy a pound of lamb roast in Washington.

They were graded for beautiful feathers, shape and utility. Egg-laying ability also was taken into consideration.

Birds of every size, description and color are exhibited, and are worth about $50,000, according to Theodore Hewes, Indianapolis, manager of the show.

GIRL TELLS OF LONG SACRIFICE FOR HUSBAND.

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 7. — If Edward B. Wade is acquitted of the atrocious murder of George E. Nott, it will be through the testimony of his wife, who, knowing of his infatuation for the wife of the murdered man, stood by him through bitter years, stood by him after the murder and stood by him on the witness stand Thursday, when she told her own pitiful side of the sordid tragedy to the court.

Dade's defense is a studied attempt to prove him a mental incompetent, backward, illiterate, subnormal.

To this defense Mrs. Wade, 23, and strikingly beautiful, added the weight of an affecting story of her struggle to bring him to normal manhood from the time they were married when she was only 17, until the Nott killing.
